2022 Candidate Qualifying

UPDATE to the qualifying notice affecting Levy County Soil and Water Conservation Supervisor Offices - Governor DeSantis signed Senate Bill 1078 into law late on June 15, 2022. It requires all Soil and Water Conservation seats to be on the ballot this year. Candidates who have already qualified for one of these seats may be impacted. Please continue to monitor our website for updates or contact us at 352-486-5163.

Tammy Jones, Supervisor of Elections for Levy County, announces 2022 candidate qualifying dates for local offices in Levy County. The qualifying period runs from noon on Monday, June 13 through noon on Friday, June 17. To qualify for office and appear on the ballot, candidates for local office must file complete qualifying paperwork with the Levy County Supervisor of Elections Office during this period. Candidates for offices that extend outside of Levy County must file with the State Division of Elections Office.

In the 2022 Election Cycle many local offices are up for election in Levy County:

- Levy County Property Appraiser (Due to the death of Property Appraiser Osborn "Oz" Barker.)
- Levy County Commission - Districts 2, 3, and 4 (District 3 will be on the ballot this year due to the death of Commissioner Mike Joyner.)
- Levy County School Board - Districts 1, 3, and 5
- Levy Soil and Water Conservation Supervisor - All seats (Governor DeSantis signed Senate Bill 1078 into law late on June 15, 2022. It requires all Soil and Water Conservation seats to be on the ballot this year.)

Voters can view the list of Levy County candidates by visiting the candidate information section of www.votelevy.gov. Candidates for federal, state, and multicounty office qualify with the Florida Division of Elections. For information on those candidates, visit dos.myflorida.com/elections.

Voters with questions are encouraged to contact the Supervisor of Elections Office by email at tammy@votelevy.gov, or by phone at 352-486-5163.
