Levy County Supervisor of Elections Inducted as Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections President

Tammy Jones, Levy County Supervisor of Elections, was sworn in as President of the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections by Secretary of State, Laurel Lee. The swearing-in ceremony took place during the association's conference on Wednesday, May 22nd in Daytona Beach, Florida.

The FSASE is made up of supervisors of elections from all sixty-seven counties in the State of Florida. Jones was elected by her fellow peers to represent the association as their President for one year.

Jones has made it her goal to be an active participant with the FSASE. "I'm deeply honored to be sworn in as the 61st President of the association. The association's mission is to assist its members in conducting fair, honest, and accurate elections, our members grow stronger due to the connections we all share. As my colleagues and I prepare for the 2020 elections, we will continue to work diligently to improve the voting experience for Floridians" said Jones.
