Florida Supervisors of Elections Awards Scholarship in Memory of Supervisor Joy Smith

Tammy Jones, Levy County Supervisor of Elections is pleased to announce that the Florida Supervisors of Elections (FSE) will be awarding four worthy students from around the state each with a $1,200 scholarship. This year one of the four scholarships will be presented in memory of former Levy County Supervisor of Elections Joy Smith.

Supervisor Joy Smith served the voters of Levy County from 1976 to 1992. She was actively involved in her community and the Florida Association of Supervisors of Elections. "Supervisor Smith left a legacy of servanthood for those who would later follow in her footsteps by serving as Supervisor of Elections. She passionately believed in providing the voters of Levy County with accurate and fair elections," said Supervisor Tammy Jones.

Applicants had to meet certain eligibility requirements in order to be considered for this scholarship. Applicants must live in the state of Florida for two years and have maintained at least a "C" average. They also must have been accepted or enrolled as a full-time student in a senior college or university in Florida with the completion of two years of junior college or undergraduate work. Eligible majors included Political Science, Public/Business Administration or Journalism/Mass Communication.
